THIS IS WHAT YOU WILL NEED TO DO

PREP TIME: 15 mins | COOKING TIME: 25 mins

Combine chicken thighs, lemon juice, yoghurt and Cape Herb & Spice Butter Chicken Curry Spice in a bowl. Mix well and leave to marinate while you prep the rest of the ingredients. *Top tip: for maximum flavour, plan ahead and marinate the chicken the night before.

Rinse rice well and leave to soak for 10 minutes.

Heat olive oil in a large saucepan with a lid. Add the shallots and cook until tender. Add the ginger, garlic and Cape Herb & Spice Butter Chicken Curry Spice. Cook for a minute until fragrant. Add in the marinated chicken and cook for a few minutes. Add the diced tomato.

Drain the rice and scatter it evenly over the chicken and tomato mix. Gently pour over the hot stock. Bring to a simmer and seal with a lid. Cook gently for ± 15 minutes until the rice is tender and all the stock has been absorbed. While the biryani is cooking, make the raita.

Combine all the ingredients in a small bowl. Taste to adjust seasoning. Remove the biryani from the heat. Fluff with a fork, mixing everything together evenly.

Add Cape Herb & Spice Salt & Pepper to taste.

Serve the biryani with a dollop of raita, fresh coriander and a good squeeze of lemon juice.
